Saturday Evening

The Featured Filk Concert with Erica Neely will open the evening at 8PM, followed by the annual awards ceremony at 9PM. At 9:30PM, after the awards ceremony, the stage will turn into a radio studio as our Neptune Theater presents "Giant's Tooth," a radio play based on a story by Bruce Coville. Bruce himself will play a part, as will Jane Yolen, Larry Seiler, Dave Grubbs, Larry Pfeffer, and Tim Szczesuil.

Throughout the weekend, Boskone will have mini-musical events in the Galleria.

Higgins Armory will present demos of fighting styles, ranging from medieval dagger displays to light saber duels!

Kunstbruder will present informal training in swordsmanship.

REGISTRATION

Registration will be open Friday (starting at 4PM) through Sunday (noon) in the second floor pre-function area. To reach the Registration area, take a left past the City Bar as you enter the lobby through the main doors. Check posted signs for the location of Registration. Everyone (committee, staff, program participants, artists, hucksters) must register there to get name badges and convention materials. We will make it as painless an experience as we can!

Please remember to bring a government-issued photo ID, such as a driver's license or passport, to registration. If you arrive late, ask in the Con Suite about the location of after-hours registration.

A Boskone 48 registration form is online at www.boskone.org/reg.html. Register online or print and mail the form to PO Box 809, Framingham, MA 01701, or fax it to 617-776-3243. Advance membership of $49 ended Tuesday, January 18, 2011 and at-con rates are now active. We accept all major credit cards, Paypal, checks (in US$ drawn on a US bank), and money orders.

At-con rates are: Full membership $58, Friday $15, Saturday $43, Sunday $15. After January 18th, at-the-door memberships will be available online.

Student Rates:

Starting this year we have student rates:

College students: $35; K-12 students: $25

There are no separate student day rates; these rates will not increase at the con. Bring your school-related ID in order to pick up your badge at Boskone.

Children under 10 who stay with their parents at all times are considered kids-in-tow who need not have memberships. (Kids-in-tow do not receive any convention materials.)

Note: DragonsLair is not child care, but program designed for our younger members (ages 7-12); it is included in the cost of memberships.

Con Suite is our hospitality area, and it's between the Art Show and Hucksters Room. Stop by for some soda and munchies, to meet new and old friends and have fun!

Viable Paradise will again sponsor a Sunday morning brunch in the Con Suite.

The Program Desk is between Information and the Office in the Galleria. Stop by to sign up for a Kaffeeklatsch or a Literary Beer.

Gaming: Did Adama take away your toaster? Has the flu got the world down and out? Not to worry, gaming will put a smile on your face and the right cards in your hands. Look for both tournaments, along with some new games, and even a zombie mode on COD.

DragonsLair is a place for kids activities and programming. Any child between the ages of 7 and 12 with a membership may attend. Games, readings and crafts are among our activities

Friday Evening 8PM Fangtasia welcomes The Maker

I, Eric Norseman, my assistant, Pam, and the vampires of Louisiana have prepared an evening event to honor The Maker. We welcome all humans, shifters, and immortals to join us at the Fangtasia Bar (also known as the Galleria) beginning at 8PM. True Blood will be available for those so inclined, as well as a bar and snacks for our mortal and shifter friends. (Fairy folk, be forewarned that you may become a snack, so I wouldn't come if I were you. —Pam)

The Boskone reception begins at 10PM, immediately following the Fangtasia vampires welcome of their Maker.

Saturday Afternoon

Late Saturday afternoon, we'll have a Boskone Tea Party celebrating the launch of two new NESFA Press Books: Scratch Monkey by Boskone GoH Charles Stross and Admiralty: Volume 4 of the Short Fiction of Poul Anderson. There will be poppyseed cake to go with the tea, featuring cakes from Jo Walton, Priscilla Olson, and the traditional 1970s NESFA

Filking: Filk is the folk music of science fiction fandom. It includes some excellent writers and performers, but everyone is welcome to participate regardless of level of ability, or simply to come and listen.

Items include theme circles, NESFA Hymnal singing and the Featured Filker Concert. Erica Neely will be performing. There are plans for “philosophical filk songs”—Erica teaches philosophy at college.

Anime/Video: Watch your favorites during our film festivals. Check the Pocket Program for times and places.

Readings: Hear writers read and discuss their own works.

Kaffeeklatsches/Literary Beers: Participate in an informal discussion with one of our program participants over coffee, tea, or beer. Sign up for these at the Program Desk, in the Galleria near Information.

Autographing will go on in the Galleria on Saturday and Sunday.

Discussion Groups: Join program participants and other members in the Boskone con suite, our very own “living room of fandom.” Discussion groups are small intimate conversations on focused topics—and we invite you to form your own group (“Birds of a Feather”). This year, we’ll have even more individual presentations and focused discussions as well as a Knit-a-long. E-mail discussion group ideas to: program@boskone.org.

Boskone’s Hub—the Galleria

The Galleria, on the lower level of the Westin, is the hub of the convention. To find the Galleria, take a left past the City Bar, near M. J. O’Connor’s Irish pub on the left side of the lobby and take the escalator to the lower level. Free Wifi will be available in the Galleria Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Information will be just inside the door of the Galleria. We don’t know the ultimate meaning of life, the universe, and everything (unless it really is “42”), but we can help you find your way around Boskone and Boston. The Information Desk includes: lost and found, a news drop-off for the convention newsletter, Helmut, details about the area around the hotel, help for folks who haven’t been to Boskone before, sardonic wit, and a clock. If we don’t know the answer, we can help you find out who to ask!

Transferring Memberships

Boskone does not refund memberships. However, you may transfer your membership to someone else. All membership transfers must be done in writing. Your transferee will be able to register much more quickly at the convention if you write to us in advance (at the PO Box or to info-b48@boskone.org) to let us know of the transfer, and have your transferee bring a copy of your transfer letter to Registration. Life Memberships are not transferable.

ABOUT NESFA & NESFA PRESS

Boskone is the annual convention of NESFA, the New England Science Fiction Association. NESFA has frequent meetings and maintains a clubhouse and library in Somerville. Stop by our website (www.nesfa.org) for more information—visitors encouraged! Besides meetings, we gather almost every Wednesday for activities and game-playing.

NESFA Press keeps in print works by dozens of classic science fiction writers, including Cordwainer Smith, Zenna Henderson, Poul Anderson, Roger Zelazny, and William Tenn. At Boskone we publish a book by our Guest of Honor. This year we present Charles Stross's Scratch Monkey. New books published since the previous Boskone include another volume of Poul Anderson's work and a pictorial bibliography of Roger Zelazny's works. Stop by the NESFA Press table in the Hucksters' Room to add to your book collection. Buy all you'd like—we'll print more!

SERVICES & PUBLICATIONS

Volunteer at Boskone and Win a Free Trip to Venus!

Okay, that's a lie. There's no free trip to Venus. But we really, really need your help, and we hope you help us to build a great Boskone! And you will have our eternal gratitude, some spiffy rewards, and even the chance to come to Boskone in 2012 for free. (And remember: if the extraterrestrials choose to make First Contact at Boskone, volunteers get priority for the party.)

Everyone who works on Boskone is a volunteer, and we'd love to have you join our merry band. If you're local and would like to meet us before the convention, we'll be putting things together at our clubhouse in Somerville, Massachusetts in February. Drop us email at volunteers@boskone.org for more information.

Join us to help unload the truck full of convention-running goodies, build our Art Show, or do various tedious sit-down tasks made delightful by good company (and the Secret Buffet of Fandom), that happens on the night before the convention begins. And, of course, we could use help after the convention, packing it all back up, and getting it into and out of the truck.

Spiffy rewards include nifty t-shirts for folks who work 8 hours or more, free books, munchies (we want to keep you moving!), and free memberships to Boskone 49 (for those who put in 12 hours or more).

What's happening for volunteers to help with?

Truck unloading, Art Show building, many other things to do: Thursday, February 17, from 5-ish to whenever we finish, Westin Boston Waterfront, Galleria.

At Convention (help in registration, con suite, program, art show, children's program, office...): Friday, February 18 – Sunday, February 20, all over the Westin.

Shared Van: You can take a shared van to the hotel for about $10. See details at: www.massport.com/logan/getti\_typeo\_share.html. (Be sure to specify "Westin Boston Waterfront, Summer St." as there are other Westins in the Boston area.)
